Resource Center for Independent Living
Watertown City School District
Community Health Center of the North Country
Syracuse VA Medical Center
Fort Drum Exceptional Family Members Program
Community Action Planning Council
Jefferson County Public Health
Jefferson Lewis BOCES
North Country Prenatal Perinatal Council

The event is sponsored by the North Country Job Placement and Resource Network. The NCJPRN combines local resources and services to provide vocational opportunities and support for persons with disabilities in finding and maintaining employment in the North Country Community. For more information contact Barry Tatters at btatters@mail.nysedgov.

With ever changing grants and funding, programs and whom agencies serve are also ever changing. The purpose of this Fair is so families and community members can be more aware of what is available to them and how to gain access, ask questions, become educated and determine what services are right for them. This event is free to the public and all are invited to attend.
